Põhjendus (5)

Ovsyannikov was former “Governor of Sevastopol” in the elections of 10 September 2017 organised by the Russian Federation in the illegally annexed city of Sevastopol . He served until 2019 and is now Deputy Minister of Industry and Trade of the Russian Federation.

Ovsyannikov was the Governor of Sevastopol, appointed as acting Governor of Sevastopol by President Putin in July 2016 and elected in the elections of 10 September 2017, organised by the Russian Federation in the illegally annexed city of Sevastopol. In this capacity, he worked for further integration of the illegally annexed Sevastopol region into the Russian Federation, and was as such responsible for actively supporting or implementing actions or policies which undermine or threaten the territorial integrity, sovereignty and independence of Ukraine. He served until 2019 and was then appointed as Deputy Minister of Industry and Trade of the Russian Federation until April 2020.
